Index Issue – July - December, 1990

With this issue, we continue our practice of publishing a semi-annual index to the cases and news stories that have appeared in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months.

We began this service in 1980 in response to requests from lawyers and judges for a convenient reference guide to the newspaper, and we hope that the indexes have been helpful to our readers.

The index is divided into two parts. The first part, which begins on this page, contains a complete listing of every court or administrative agency opinion that has appeared in the paper since July 16, 1990. The cases are listed by name under the appropriate court or administrative agency heading.

The cases are also indexed by subject matter, beginning on page 10. In the sections below, we have listed the courts and administrative agencies that are covered and the subject matter headings that have been used.

Note that in the Subject Matter Index, the capital letter that appears next to the issue date in the fourth column corresponds to the court or agency from which the case originated. Reference must then be made to the section headlined "What Courts Are Covered" to translate the letter code into the appropriate court or agency.

The second part of the index is devoted to front-page news stories and feature and news articles that have appeared inside or in separate supplements since the July 16 issue. Also indexed are laws that have been enacted during the past six months. Only those laws that have been listed in a box, under the heading "Important Bills Signed," are indexed.

The news story index is divided into two parts: the "News Story Index" and the "News Story Subject Index." The former part is organized by department and lists stories by their headlines. The second part is organized by subject matter.

Trial Reports are indexed in the "News Story Index" according to subject matter.

Each index reference includes the date of the issue in which the case or story appeared and the cumulative page number (citation) on which the item appeared.

Because of space considerations, it is impossible to include in this index all the information contained in Lawyers Weekly. We hope you will continue to consult your issues of the newspaper each week so that you will remain fully informed.

As always, our goal is to be of service to the legal community in Massachusetts. If you have any comments or suggestions on this index issue, or on Lawyers Weekly in general, please let us know.

Case Name Index

How To Use This Index

This index includes cases which were reported in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months. The listings are alphabetical (by plaintiff's name only) within each court department or administrative agency.

Following the case name is a column listing the volume and number of the issue of Lawyers Weekly, which is then followed by a column listing the cumulative page number of the appropriate volume of Lawyers Weekly – the MLW citation. (This page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly; for example, 19 MLW 1545.) This column is then followed by the issue date.

The last two columns provide the Lawyers Weekly case number which is followed by the number of pages in that particular case. The Lawyers Weekly case number is to be used when ordering the full text of an opinion.

CHIEF COUNSEL

MASSACHUSETTS COMMITTEE FOR PUBLIC COUNSEL SERVICES

The Committee for Public Counsel Services, which is responsible for the planning, oversight, and coordination of the delivery of criminal and certain noncriminal legal services for indigents, is seeking a new Chief Counsel.

The Chief Counsel is the overall administrator of a statewide program which provides its services to approximately 200,000 assignments through a Public Counsel Division, consisting of one hundred twenty full-time attorneys in twelve offices across the state, and through a Private Counsel Division, which oversees approximately 3,000 private attorneys, who are compensated on a per hour, per-case basis, assigned primarily through Bar Advocate programs in each county. The Committee also conducts training programs and sets performance standards. The Committee's budget for fiscal 1991 is approximately $50 million.

Each applicant shall have been admitted to practice for at least seven years, shall be a member of, or eligible for admission to, the Massachusetts Bar and should have strong administrative experience.

Salary: $72,500 per year plus state benefits.

Location: Boston, Massachusetts

The Committee for Public Counsel Services is an Affirmative Action-Equal Opportunity Employer.

Interested applicants should send 16 copies of their resume and a statement of interest by February 22, 1991, to:

Margaret A. Burnham
Chairperson
Committee for Public Counsel Services
80 Boylston Street, Suite 600
Boston, MA 02116

How To Use This Index

This index includes cases which were reported in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months. The listings are alphabetical (by plaintiff's name only) within each court department or administrative agency.

Following the case name is a column listing the volume and number of the issue of Lawyers Weekly, which is then followed by a column listing the cumulative page number of the appropriate volume of Lawyers Weekly – the MLW citation. (This page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly; for example, 19 MLW 1545.) This column is then followed by the issue date.

The last two columns provide the Lawyers Weekly case number which is followed by the number of pages in that particular case. The Lawyers Weekly case number is to be used when ordering the full text of an opinion.

Q. You need a letterhead that projects the quality and integrity of your law firm. Whom do you call?

A. Ardon Printing, of course.

Ardon knows what quality means to an attorney Each day you express your quality in many ways. One of these ways is through the quality of your printing and stationery. Ardon ensures the highest quality in the products they print . They never settle for second best in the materials they use. They know that you strive for perfection in your practice; they strive for perfection in the products they produce.

How To Use This Index

This index includes cases which were reported in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months. The listings are alphabetical (by plaintiff's name only) within each court department or administrative agency.

Following the case name is a column listing the volume and number of the issue of Lawyers Weekly, which is then followed by a column listing the cumulative page number of the appropriate volume of Lawyers Weekly – the MLW citation. (This page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly; for example, 19 MLW 1545.) This column is then followed by the issue date.

The last two columns provide the Lawyers Weekly case number which is followed by the number of pages in that particular case. The Lawyers Weekly case number is to be used when ordering the full text of an opinion.

How To Use This Index

This index includes all of the cases which have been reported in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months, listed by subject matter. The cases are listed by specific subject matter within broader categories – such as, "Administrative," or "Practice, Civil."

The specific subject matter listing is followed by columns denoting the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, which is then followed by the cumulative page number of Lawyers Weekly – the citation. (The cumulative page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly, e.g., 19 MLW 1545.) The next column lists the issue date of Lawyers Weekly.

The letter which appears next to the date is the letter code for the court or administrative agency from which the case originated. To determine which court corresponds to the letter used, please consult the "What Courts Are Covered" explanation which appears on page one.

The final two columns list the Lawyers Weekly number for that particular case and the number of pages. When ordering the full text of a decision, please use the Lawyers Weekly number.

How To Use This Index

This index includes all of the cases which have been reported in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months, listed by subject matter. The cases are listed by specific subject matter within broader categories – such as, "Administrative," or "Practice, Civil."

The specific subject matter listing is followed by columns denoting the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, which is then followed by the cumulative page number of Lawyers Weekly – the citation. (The cumulative page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly, e.g., 19 MLW 1545.) The next column lists the issue date of Lawyers Weekly.

The letter which appears next to the date is the letter code for the court or administrative agency from which the case originated. To determine which court corresponds to the letter used, please consult the "What Courts Are Covered" explanation which appears on page one.

The final two columns list the Lawyers Weekly number for that particular case and the number of pages. When ordering the full text of a decision, please use the Lawyers Weekly number.

Are you making enough money?

In today's legal environment you need more than a silver tongue to reap golden profits.

You need laser-sharp management skills and topnotch client services support. Because you operate in an environment that grows more competitive every day.

Every day you go head-to-head with issues of client retention, income distribution, increasing associate turnover, and the need for intensive marketing.

And that's only the half of it.

How well you manage the challenges of running your office and your cases is the key to how much you will profit.

At Feeley & Driscoll, we've helped many law firms significantly increase their partners' earnings. We are both certified public accountants and business consultants.

We can help you develop affordable and efficient solutions in all of these areas:

- Strategic Planning and Goal Setting
- Marketing
- Partner Compensation
- Valuation
- Mergers
- Retreat Facilitation
- Management Evaluation Surveys
- Marketing
- Operational Reviews
- Financing
- Computer Systems
- Tax Planning
- Litigation Support

So don't settle for simple survival; set a profitable pace.

For more information on what a Feeley & Driscoll law-firm specialist can offer you, call Daniel F. Driscoll, Partner-in-charge of Law Firm Services at (617) 742-7788.

How To Use This Index

This index includes all of the cases which have been reported in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months, listed by subject matter. The cases are listed by specific subject matter within broader categories – such as, "Administrative," or "Practice, Civil."

The specific subject matter listing is followed by columns denoting the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, which is then followed by the cumulative page number of Lawyers Weekly – the citation. (The cumulative page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly, e.g., 19 MLW 1545.) The next column lists the issue date of Lawyers Weekly.

The letter which appears next to the date is the letter code for the court or administrative agency from which the case originated. To determine which court corresponds to the letter used, please consult the "What Courts Are Covered" explanation which appears on page one.

The final two columns list the Lawyers Weekly number for that particular case and the number of pages. When ordering the full text of a decision, please use the Lawyers Weekly number.

How To Use This Index

This index includes all of the cases which have been reported in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months, listed by subject matter. The cases are listed by specific subject matter within broader categories – such as, "Administrative," or "Practice, Civil."

The specific subject matter listing is followed by columns denoting the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, which is then followed by the cumulative page number of Lawyers Weekly – the citation. (The cumulative page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly, e.g., 19 MLW 1545.) The next column lists the issue date of Lawyers Weekly.

The letter which appears next to the date is the letter code for the court or administrative agency from which the case originated. To determine which court corresponds to the letter used, please consult the "What Courts Are Covered" explanation which appears on page one.

The final two columns list the Lawyers Weekly number for that particular case and the number of pages. When ordering the full text of a decision, please use the Lawyers Weekly number.

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject matter of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months. Not included are meeting notices and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

Rules and other developments in the courts may be found under the heading, News From The Courts. Stories about significant rules changes may also be found on page

Articles that have appeared in special sections such as Real Estate or Law Practice Management, are indexed under those specific headings.

Under the Legislation heading are recent bills signed into law by the governor; they are listed in a box on the News From Beacon Hill page headed Important Bills Signed. These bills are seen as having some significance to the legal community.

BOSTON OFFICE SPACE WANTED

LBO firm that acquires small and medium-sized companies seeks 3000 to 5000 sq. ft. of Class A office space. Boston's financial district preferred, but will consider Cambridge, 128 and other areas. Prefer furnished space, but this is not essential. Will pay rent not in cash, but in stock in companies we acquire. Capital gains will greatly exceed whatever rent you would otherwise receive. Serious replies only. Will pay fees to brokers.
Michael Stevenson — (617) 969-4272.

We handle estates as expertly as you do.

As New England's largest auction house, Skinner has the experience, expertise, and facilities to appraise and sell fine antiques and collectibles.

INTRODUCING THE "DAILY CFR." IT'S LIKE HAVING A NEW CFR IN YOUR OFFICE EVERY DAY. ONLY BETTER.

Until now, keeping current with changes in federal rules and regulations was a struggle for even the most dedicated researcher. But now you won't need to keep stacks of Federal Registers and LSA's within reach of an outdated copy of the CFR. We do the work for you. Our editors update the CFR each day as changes are published in the Federal Register. So what you get is, in effect, a brand new Code of Federal Regulations every day in full text, online and searchable on your office terminal.

Call 1-800-366-6363 today to arrange for a demonstration.

DISPOSABLE INCOME IS SHRINKING. WAISTLINE IS EXPANDING.

TWO MORE GOOD REASONS TO JOIN SKY CLUB.

Now's the time for us to exercise a little fiscal responsibility. And maybe now's the time to just exercise.

Consider Sky Club. For the past seven years, we have been offering busy downtown people a fitness center that's convenient, complete, professional. Times change, however, and so do we. We're adding brand new, top-line equipment in our fitness and strength training areas. We're offering more value-added programming to help you stay healthy. And our new, flexible payment options respond to your need to stretch every dollar.

Visit Sky Club, centrally located atop the Devonshire, in the heart of the financial district. We'll be happy to show you around, and discuss the membership option that meets your needs.

And if you need any more reasons to join, we're sure we can give you a few of those too.

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject matter of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months. Not included are meeting notices and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

Rules and other developments in the courts may be found under the heading, News From The Courts. Stories about significant rules changes may also be found on page .

Articles that have appeared in special sections such as Real Estate or Law Practice Management, are indexed under those specific headings.

Under the Legislation heading are recent bills signed into law by the governor; they are listed in a box on the News From Beacon Hill page headed Important Bills Signed. These bills are seen as having some significance to the legal community.

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months. Not included are meeting notices, "Briefs" and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

First find the general index heading that corresponds to the subject you are researching. Then scan the sublistings for relevant stories. Do not limit your search to one subject heading; check the listings under related or similar subject headings.

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Lawyers Weekly during the past six months. Not included are meeting notices, "Briefs" and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

First find the general index heading that corresponds to the subject you are researching. Then scan the sublistings for relevant stories. Do not limit your search to one subject heading; check the listings under related or similar subject headings.

MASSACHUSETTS LAWYERS WEEKLY

Vol. 19, No. 42 | Cite this Page 19 M.L.W. 1945 | July 8, 1991 | $5.00 per copy $210 per year

Index Issue — January-May 1991

With this issue, we continue our practice of publishing a semi-annual index to the cases and news stories that have appeared in Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly. Due to a recent change in our case-numbering system, this index only covers the first five months of 1991 (rather than the customary six months). Cases and stories published in June 1991 will appear in the next semi-annual index.

We began this service in 1980 in response to requests from lawyers and judges for a convenient reference guide to the newspaper, and we hope that the indexes have been helpful to our readers.

The index is divided into two parts. The first part, which begins on this page, contains a complete listing of every court or administrative agency opinion that has appeared paper between January 7, 1991 and May 27, 1991. The cases are listed by name under the appropriate court or administrative agency heading.

The cases are also indexed by subject matter, beginning on page 10. In the sections below, we have listed the courts and administrative agencies that are covered and the subject matter headings that have been used.

Note that in the Subject Matter Index, the capital letter that appears next to the issue date in the fourth column corresponds to the court or agency from which the case originated. Reference must then be made to the section headlined "What Courts Are Covered" to translate the letter code into the appropriate court or agency.

The second part of the index is devoted to front-page news stories and articles that have appeared inside or in separate supplements during the first five months of 1991. Also indexed are laws that have been enacted during the first five months of 1991. Only those laws that have been listed in a box, under the heading "Important Bills Signed," are indexed.

The news story index is divided into two parts: the "News Story Index" and the "News Story Subject Index." The former part is organized by department and lists stories by their headlines. The second part is organized by subject matter.

Trial Reports are indexed in the "News Story Index" according to subject matter.

Each index reference includes the date of the issue in which the case or story appeared and the cumulative page number (citation) on which the item appeared.

Because of space considerations, it is impossible to include in this index all the information contained in Lawyers Weekly. We hope you will continue to consult your issues of the newspaper each week so that you will remain fully informed.

As always, our goal is to be of service to the legal community in Massachusetts. If you have any comments or suggests on this index issue, or on Lawyers Weekly in general, please let us know.

What Courts Are Covered?

The Case Name Index, which begins below, contains the title of every case from a court or administrative agency which has appeared in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991.

Case Name Index

How To Use This Index

This index includes cases which were reported in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. The listings are alphabetical (by plaintiff's name only) within each court department or administrative agency.

Following the case name is a column listing the volume and number of the issue of Lawyers Weekly, which is then followed by a column listing the cumulative page number of the appropriate volume of Lawyers Weekly – the MLW citation. (This page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly; for example, 19 MLW 1545). This column is then followed by the issue date.

The last two columns provide the Lawyers Weekly case number which is followed by the number of pages in that particular case. The Lawyers Weekly case number is to be used when ordering the full text of an opinion.

How To Use This Index

This index includes cases which were reported in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. The listings are alphabetical (by plaintiff's name only) within each court department or administrative agency.

Following the case name is a column listing the volume and number of the issue of Lawyers Weekly, which is then followed by a column listing the cumulative page number of the appropriate volume of Lawyers Weekly – the MLW citation. (This page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly; for example, 19 MLW 1545). This column is then followed by the issue date.

The last two columns provide the Lawyers Weekly case number which is followed by the number of pages in that particular case. The Lawyers Weekly case number is to be used when ordering the full text of an opinion.

How To Use This Index

This index includes cases which were reported in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. The listings are alphabetical (by plaintiff's name only) within each court department or administrative agency.

Following the case name is a column listing the volume and number of the issue of Lawyers Weekly, which is then followed by a column listing the cumulative page number of the appropriate volume of Lawyers Weekly – the MLW citation. (This page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly; for example, 19 MLW 1545). This column is then followed by the issue date.

The last two columns provide the Lawyers Weekly case number which is followed by the number of pages in that particular case. The Lawyers Weekly case number is to be used when ordering the full text of an opinion.

A valuable new service for Boston's legal community...

RMC RECORDSAVER Management Company, Inc.

LET US HELP MANAGE YOUR RECORDS, NOT JUST STORE THEM! WE OFFER:

SAVINGS... reduce the material you store, move it to less expensive space when appropriate, and keep it only as long as needed.
SERVICE... catalog and track records, retrieve legal research done on a topic, and avoid conflicts of interest.
SPEED... retrieve files or whole boxes. Later afternoon calls are routine, not "emergencies" as others treat them.

Why refer hard to come by clients?

You cannot afford the competition, let alone refer your clients to them. I would be pleased to assist you.

I have been an Immigration consultant for over 10 years during which I have dealt with virtually every area of immigration law. Not to mention the U.S. Dept. of Labor and U.S. Embassies throughout the world. The service which I provide will enable you to receive the credit and you keep the client.

How To Use This Index

This index includes cases which were reported in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. The listings are alphabetical (by plaintiff's name only) within each court department or administrative agency.

Following the case name is a column listing the volume and number of the issue of Lawyers Weekly, which is then followed by a column listing the cumulative page number of the appropriate volume of Lawyers Weekly – the MLW citation. (This page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly; for example, 19 MLW 1545). This column is then followed by the issue date.

The last two columns provide the Lawyers Weekly case number which is followed by the number of pages in that particular case. The Lawyers Weekly case number is to be used when ordering the full text of an opinion.

How To Use This Index

This index includes all of the cases which have been reported in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991, listed by subject matter. The cases are listed by specific subject matter within broader categories – such as, "Administrative," or "Practice, Civil."

The specific subject matter listing is followed by columns denoting the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, which is then followed by the cumulative page number of Lawyers Weekly – the citation. (The cumulative page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly, e.g., 19 MLW 1545). The next column lists the issue date of Lawyers Weekly.

The letter which appears next to the date is the letter code for the court or administrative agency from which the case originated. To determine which court corresponds to the letter used, please consult the "What Courts Are Covered" explanation which appears on page one.

The final two columns list the Lawyers Weekly number for that particular case and the number of pages. When ordering the full text of a decision, please use the Lawyers Weekly number.

PHYSICAL CAPACITIES EVALUATION

Physical Capacities Evaluations (PCE) have been highly successful in determining extent of disability for settlement purposes. They are useful in determining how injury affects loss of function and loss of earning capacity. PCE's analyse restrictions to activities such as lifting, standing, walking, sitting, bending forward and climbing.

Particularly helpful in soft tissue injuries such as backs and knees, a PCE measures impairment to the whole body, not just to the area of injury. For instance some knee injuries also reduce tolerance to sitting.

How To Use This Index

This index includes all of the cases which have been reported in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991, listed by subject matter. The cases are listed by specific subject matter within broader categories – such as, "Administrative," or "Practice, Civil."

The specific subject matter listing is followed by columns denoting the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, which is then followed by the cumulative page number of Lawyers Weekly – the citation. (The cumulative page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly, e.g., 19 MLW 1545). The next column lists the issue date of Lawyers Weekly.

The letter which appears next to the date is the letter code for the court or administrative agency from which the case originated. To determine which court corresponds to the letter used, please consult the "What Courts Are Covered" explanation which appears on page one.

The final two columns list the Lawyers Weekly number for that particular case and the number of pages. When ordering the full text of a decision, please use the Lawyers Weekly number.

How To Use This Index

This index includes all of the cases which have been reported in Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991, listed by subject matter. The cases are listed by specific subject matter within broader categories – such as, "Administrative," or "Practice, Civil."

The specific subject matter listing is followed by columns denoting the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, which is then followed by the cumulative page number of Lawyers Weekly – the citation. (The cumulative page number may be found on the top inside of each page of Lawyers Weekly, e.g., 19 MLW 1545). The next column lists the issue date of Lawyers Weekly.

The letter which appears next to the date is the letter code for the court or administrative agency from which the case originated. To determine which court corresponds to the letter used, please consult the "What Courts Are Covered" explanation which appears on page one.

The final two columns list the Lawyers Weekly number for that particular case and the number of pages. When ordering the full text of a decision, please use the Lawyers Weekly number.

DISCIPLINARY HEARING COMMITTEE MEMBERS

The Board of Bar Overseers is soliciting applications from attorneys across the Commonwealth who are interested in being appointed to a three-year term as a Hearing Committee member.

The Hearing Committees are organized by geographical districts and the members sit locally in panels of three as a fact-finding tribunal in disciplinary proceedings brought by the Office of Bar Counsel against individual attorneys. The Committees take evidence, make adjudicatory rulings, and prepare a written report and recommendation for the Board of Bar Overseers' consideration.

The Committee members receive no monetary compensation, and are expected to devote their time as a public service in the vital interest of preserving the integrity of the legal profession. There are over one hundred Committee members, and at least thirteen vacancies to be filled by August 31, 1991.

The Board of Bar Overseers seeks to maintain a broad-based representation of attorneys within the Committee ranks, and encourages applications from women, minorities, small firm practitioners, and public service attorneys. Resumes of interested attorneys should be sent to Michael Fredrickson, Board Counsel, Board of Bar Overseers, 75 Federal Street, Boston, MA 02110 by July 31, 1991.

The most comprehensive compilation of civil and criminal rules, forms, orders and analysis for state and federal courts in Massachusetts. Over 700 pages in a convenient looseleaf format.

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject matter of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. Not included are meeting notices and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

Articles that have appeared in special sections, such as Real Estate or Portfolio, are indexed under those specific headings.

Under the Legislation heading are recent bills signed into law by the governor; they are listed in a box on the News From Beacon Hill page headed Important Bills Signed. These bills are seen as having some significance to the legal community.

In celebration of our 20th Anniversary, we take this opportunity to thank the legal community.

DO YOU HAVE A PROBLEM WITH ALCOHOL OR DRUGS?

10 Questions for Lawyers . . .

While you think about this, consider these facts:

	YES	NO
1. Have you failed to show up at the office or court because of a hangover?	☐	☐
2. Have you neglected to process mail promptly, failed to return telephone calls or to keep appointments?	☐	☐
3. Are you drinking in the office?	☐	☐
4. Have you co-mingled, borrowed or otherwise misused clients' Trust Funds or escrow funds?	☐	☐
5. Do you have "blackouts" i.e., when there are drinking hours or days you cannot remember?	☐	☐
6. Do you regularly drink at lunchtime, and is your ability to perform diminished in the afternoon?	☐	☐
7. Do you frequently blame your secretary unjustly for the things that go wrong?	☐	☐
8. Is your relationship with your clients, staff and friends deteriorating?	☐	☐
9. Are you missing deadlines for performance, such as allowing the Statute of Limitations to run?	☐	☐
10. Do you wish people would mind their own business about you drinking—stop telling you what to do?	☐	☐

- Alcoholism is a treatable disease.
- Alcohol is a depressant, not a stimulant. It is similar in effect to ether, valium, librium or phenobarbital.
- Early intervention with alcoholic problems most often leads to complete recovery.
- Alcohol abuse among women has doubled in recent years. The ratio of women alcoholics to men was 1 to 6; now the ratio is 1 to 3.
- Alcoholism is a progressive illness. It gets worse—never better.

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject matter of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. Not included are meeting notices and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

Articles that have appeared in special sections, such as Real Estate or Portfolio, are indexed under those specific headings.

Under the Legislation heading are recent bills signed into law by the governor; they are listed in a box on the News From Beacon Hill page headed Important Bills Signed. These bills are seen as having some significance to the legal community.

HOW TO PLAN A CHARITABLE TRUST WITH THE GREATEST OF EASE.

For your clients with highly appreciated assets and little or no basis, a Charitable Remainder Trust (CRT) is one of the few beneficial tax and estate planning tools available today. It can diversify accumulated investments, decrease taxes, increase income. And make a charitable donation.

The only problem is, CRTs have always been extremely time-consuming and complicated to implement and to legally administer. Until now.

Now The New England and Baystate Financial Services, an advisor of Renaissance, Inc. — one of the largest administrators of unitrusts in the U.S. — have an easy, economical solution. It includes presentation software, an automated accounting system, custom documents, and review and drafting guidelines. And it gives donors maximum flexibility to act as their own trustee.

For information on Charitable Remainder Trusts and Renaissance, Inc., call Scott Fithian, CLU, ChFC, at 617-523-4500. Or mail the coupon below. And turn a complicated financial arrangement into a relatively simple legal matter.

Covering the business of Real Estate

The New England Real Estate Journal was first published January 17, 1963. The 12 page weekly tabloid has evolved into nearly 200 pages each week. The paper's growth has always reflected the growth of the industry and with the current market in New England it is crucial for success that we keep informed of the changes and trends in the marketplace.

If you are involved in the real estate industry and you are not receiving the New England Real Estate Journal, give us a call at

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject matter of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. Not included are meeting notices and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

Articles that have appeared in special sections, such as Real Estate or Portfolio, are indexed under those specific headings.

Under the Legislation heading are recent bills signed into law by the governor; they are listed in a box on the News From Beacon Hill page headed Important Bills Signed. These bills are seen as having some significance to the legal community.

Are you and your clients candidates for professional money management?

If you answer YES to any of these seven questions, and you have at least $100,000 in cash or securities, you are a candidate for professional portfolio management:

- Have your clients asked you about professional money management?
- Do you invest without a clear strategy?
- Do you lack the time to devote to ongoing investment research?
- Do you find it difficult to make decisions in a changing market?
- Are the objectives of your current portfolio manager mismatched with yours?
- Have you missed opportunities because you are difficult to reach when a change in the market requires fast action?
- Do you act in a fiduciary capacity for pension funds, ERISA accounts or trusts?

Whether your goals are income, aggressive growth or something-in-between, we can help. Join us at a free seminar and learn how you could benefit from programs such as PAINEWEBBER ACCESS.

LAWYERS ALERT™
Practical news for practicing lawyers

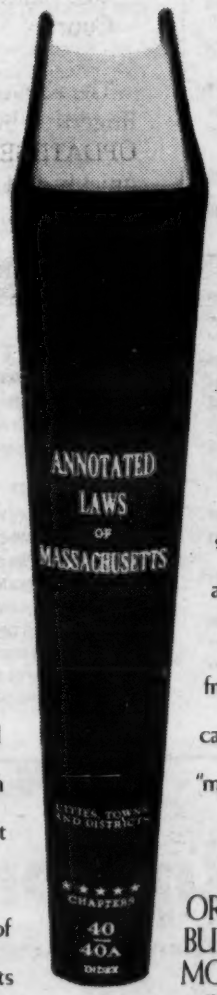
"TAILOR MADE" FOR MASSACHUSETTS.

In Massachusetts, choosing the most current, comprehensive, state-specific research source is an easy decision. ALM.™

Some annotated codes contain cases and references mass-produced for the national market with minimal tailoring to make them usable in Massachusetts. ALM is literally custom-designed for the Massachusetts attorney.

Complete coverage of all recorded Massachusetts decisions and the application of these decisions is provided in an easy-to-use format. Case notes are drawn specifically for the Massachusetts code sections which they annotate. And only those decisions of the Supreme Judicial Court, Appeals Courts and federal courts which actually discuss Massachusetts Laws and Court Rules are included.

In addition, ALM gives you valuable opinions of the Attorney General and the Massachusetts Commissioner of Revenue, reducing cliches and platitudes to make room for the kind of cases that actually win cases. Cross-references to such sources as ALR™ and Am Jur 2d™ are closely examined for annotations and text helpful in determining Massachusetts law. And Federal Aspects alerting you to federal statutes that might affect your client are also provided. No other resource gives you this important information.



All this, plus carefully selected forms for Massachusetts use included in the specific statutory section to which they apply, and a unique fully-annotated Special Laws Volume of uncodified laws.

Combine these features with our exclusive toll-free hotline to update you on the latest statutes and cases and you begin to understand why ALM is truly "made to order" in Massachusetts.

ORDER ALM AT 30% OFF AND YOU CAN BUY FOR AS LITTLE AS $25.00 PER MONTH. FOR A LIMITED TIME ONLY. CALL

CONDO DOCUMENTS

(your Fannie Mae be on the line!)

As a lawyer, you are expected to keep up with changes in Fannie Mae condominium regulations, but who has the time?

Fannie Mae changes the rules often, and you are putting your client (and yourself) at risk if your documents are out-of-date.

We prepare condominium document packages for other attorneys, guaranteed to comply with the most current FNMA/FHLMC regulations. And we do them for as little as $500.00

Here's how it works: Once an attorney completes our project questionnaire, we will prepare the Master Deed, Trust, By-laws, Rules, Unit Deed, Tax Re-adjustment Letter, etc. You will then receive from us a finished word-processed package, ready for recording.

To receive a free informational packet, call (508) 454-2110 or 459-4123, or write to Atlantic Title Services (Paul L. Levine, Esq.), 385 Gorham Street, Lowell, MA 01852.

How To Use This Index

Printed below is a listing by subject of the news stories and other features that have appeared in Massachusetts Lawyers Weekly during the first five months of 1991. Not included are meeting notices, "Briefs" and other dated material.

Following the story listing are columns containing the volume and number of the Lawyers Weekly issue, the cumulative page number (the citation) and the date of the issue in which the article appeared.

First find the general index heading that corresponds to the subject you are researching. Then scan the sublistings for relevant stories. Do not limit your search to one subject heading; check the listings under related or similar subject headings.
